

Capital Cogs

Revolving about the Rotary Club of Albany, N. Y.

WHEEL I

NOVEMBER 16, 1921

COG 25

WELCOME TO OUR CITY!

INTER-CITY ROTARY DINNER

TO

CRAWFORD C. McCULLOUGH

PRESIDENT, INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF ROTARY CLUBS

Thursday Evening, Nov. 17th, at 7 P. M.

AT THE TEN EYCK

ALBANY—TROY—SCHENECTADY—AMSTERDAM—HUDSON

DEAR ROTARIANS:

THE ballroom atop the Ten Eyck has held many an important gathering. Thursday evening there is to be another. You all know about it. On that evening at the hour of seven, Rotarians from five cities will unite to do honor to the man John Blackburn, Brace Gallien and Oscar Kinney helped elect President of the International Association of Rotary Clubs at Edinburgh last June.

Few of us know Crawford C. McCullough personally, but a lot of us are going to know him after Thursday night. From Fort William, over the Canadian border, he is coming to visit us and we want to give him the heartiest kind of a Capital District welcome.

Crawford must be prepared to be collared and greeted by John Knickerbacker's band of Trojans and warmed and made light hearted by Paul Stratton's magnetic Schenectadians. Friendships will be knitted by "Clink" Stewart's enthusiastic Amsterdamians and cemented by John McLaren's busy Hudsonians. Our own fellows will add their welcome to that of the other Clubs and it promises to be a meeting of meetings. It will be an informal affair. There will be no luncheon on Friday.

Friday evening Crawford is to address a gathering of Rotarians at Newark, N. J. The other speaker will be "one who needs no introduction to you" — our own Harlan.

Yours for Rotary,

JACK, Secretary.