

Capital ~ Cogs

Revolving about the Rotary Club of Albany, N.Y.

WHEEL I

AUGUST 10, 1921

COG 11

MEET ME AT THE ALBANY COUNTRY CLUB

FRIDAY, AUGUST 12th, AT 12:45 P. M.

OSCAR F. KINNEY

WILL TELL OF BUSINESS CONDITIONS ABROAD

ALLSTON HEADLEY

WILL WELCOME THE GOLFERS

DEAR BUSINESS MEN:—

FRIDAY'S meeting will be held at the Albany Country Club at 12:45 p. m. Three quarters and a dime will pay for your lunch. Don't wander into the Ten Eyck expecting to find the bunch there but steer your car to the City Hall at 12:30 to pick up those who are not so fortunate as Bill McEwan.

Before Oscar Kinney started for the Edinburgh convention, Harlan asked him to be prepared to tell us about business conditions abroad when he got back. He'll do it Friday. If you can buy a cheese sandwich, a sinker and "draw one" cheaper over there than in a Kinney and Woodward eatery, Oscar will confess it.

A bunch of Utica golfers are coming down to play our fellows after the luncheon. That goat of George's is still pasturing somewhere on the greens and the Utics are looking for it. Of course Rotarians are always welcome, but to make it doubly certain "Duff" Headley has been sitting up nights planning a welcoming address. Like "Duff," it will be short. A long speech would only delay the opening drive.

Do you remember the eats the "LUXURIES" gave us last year at the Country Club? We all do. So don't miss Friday. The change will do you good.

Yours for business,

JACK, Secretary.