

Capital Cogs

Revolving about the Rotary Club of Albany, N. Y.

WHEEL I

AUGUST 17, 1921

COG 12

“My Trip to Edinburgh”

BRACE M. GALLIEN

WILL GIVE US A CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNT OF IT
FRIDAY, AUGUST 19, AT 12:45 P. M.

DEAR GOLFERS:

ARTHUR HECOX is a slick young man. Last Friday while the chicken and potatoes and corn and rolls and soup and ice cream and coffee 'neverything were being served out at the Albany Country Club and everyone was singing and having a good time, Arthur was uneasy. He wanted to play golf and time was fleeting. So he kept showing Harlan his watch and telling him it was getting late and that they wouldn't get into their golf togs and out on to the greens with those Uticans until dark unless things were hurried up a bit. And Harlan listened. And Art suggested that Oscar's speech on Business Conditions Abroad be postponed a week. And Harlan consented. And that's why you didn't hear it as Oscar consented, too.

But Frank Craley and his Journal were on the job and the type was set and in went Oscar's speech head over heels. And after Oscar read it he decided it was unnecessary to repeat it. So Brace M. Gallien will tell us of his trip to Edinburgh instead.

We were glad to have the Uticans with us. Likewise all the men from Troy and all those from Peekskill. We hope they and others will come often.

Aint we got fun?

Yours back at the Ten Eyck,

JACK, Secretary.