

Capital Cogs

Revolving about the
Rotary Club of Albany, N. Y.

WHEEL I

DECEMBER 21, 1921

COG 30

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Friday, Dec. 23, At 12:45 P. M.

SPEAKER

Rev. ROELIF H. BROOKS

Rector, St. Paul's Church

Come and Get Your Fill of Christmas Cheer

DEAR SANTA CLAUSES:

I KNOW this is Christmas week. I know you're all busy. But—let us hope you will all find time to rest from your labors for an hour on Friday and that you'll be at Rotary when the gavel falls. And this includes Luther Tucker.

Rev. Roelif H. Brooks will be the speaker and he is sure to bring a message of joy to our hearts. Miss Mary Williams, professor of music at Smith College, Northampton, Mass., will sing. Miss Williams is a sister of our Norm. Let's all turn out and fill the tea room to overflowing. Our attendance slipped a bit last week but it is still well above the 80 mark for December and we want to keep it there.

And now while the joy bells of Christmas are ringing I want to express to you all, my thanks for your cooperation and helpfulness during the past year. May all of you who are ill recover, may those little ones we heard about last week grow to be Rotarians and Rotarianettes and may peace, contentment and happiness be yours. The following, quoted from a Christmas card on my desk, says the rest better than I can say it:

It's always thus at Christmas
So far as I can see;
The same old cheery greeting,
The same old Christmas tree;
The same old hearty handshake,
The same old smile and nod;
But—here's where comes the thriller—
The same old FRIENDS, thank God!

Yours for a Merry Christmas,
JACK, Secretary.