

Capital Cogs

Revolving about the Rotary Club of Albany, N.Y.

WHEEL I

AUGUST 24, 1921

COG 13

DIAMONDS How They Glitter

DAVID H. FISHER

WILL TELL ABOUT THEM

FRIDAY, AUGUST 26th, AT THE TEN EYCK
NO SILVER OFFERING

DEAR JEWELS:

ARTHUR HECOX isn't the only slick young man in the Club. There's Ernie Hoit. When Charlie DeRouville, who is Augusting at Brant Lake, left with his fishing tackle he asked Ernie to take over the burden of providing speakers for Fridays during the month. Of course Ernie consented and he has picked a speaker for this week in the person of David H. Fisher. Dave you know is a partner in the wholesale jewelry concern of Eliassof Bros. & Co. Not only did Ernie pick the speaker but he picked his subject, "DIAMONDS." Now I guess you know what I'm driving at — or rather on — for Ernie like Dave, sells Diamonds — only they're the kind you wear on your wheels instead of your fingers.

Dave is preparing a sparkling address; it will be a gem, full of fire and color. He says Fred deBeer threw out baseballs to the crowd one by one — that he will throw away diamonds by the handful. I'd like to believe him but I don't. Dave's cut is looking at you from the upper righthand corner of the page. He may throw away diamonds but when it comes to dimes — well, ask George Dugan.

Yours by the wholesale

JACK, Secretary.